Chairperson: Dr. Somdatta Karanjekar

Proceedings:

The meeting commenced at 02:30 PM under the chairperson of Dr. Somdatta Karanjekar. The Coordinator extended a warm welcome to all the members and presented the agenda items for discussion.

Agenda Item 1: The committee welcomed new student representatives.

The SC/ST Committee warmly welcomed the newly elected student representatives and congratulated them on their selection. The committee members appreciated the students for stepping forward to represent their peers and encouraged them to actively participate in activities that promote equality, inclusion, and the welfare of SC/ST students. During the welcome, the committee also explained the responsibilities of the representatives, emphasizing the importance of addressing student concerns, promoting awareness about government schemes, and ensuring a supportive academic environment. The event concluded with words of encouragement from the committee members, who expressed confidence that the new representatives would work sincerely for the betterment of the student community.

Agenda Item 2: Reviewed the list of incoming SC/ST students and their scholarship application status. A few pending documents were noted.

The committee reviewed the list of incoming SC/ST students and examined the status of their scholarship applications. A few applications were found pending due to missing documents, and the students will be advised to submit them at the earliest.

Agenda Item 3: Planned a comprehensive orientation program to inform students about available scholarships, mentoring, and grievance procedures.

The committee planned to organize a comprehensive orientation program to inform students about available scholarships, mentoring support, and grievance procedures. The program aims to create awareness and help students effectively utilize the support services provided by the institution.

Agenda Item 4: Decided to identify subjects where remedial coaching is most needed through a faculty survey.

The committee decided to identify subjects where remedial coaching is most needed by conducting a survey among faculty members. This will help determine the areas in which students require additional academic support.

Agenda Item 5: Addressing any existing grievances.

The SC/ST Cell addressed all existing student grievances and ensured that each concern was acknowledged and documented. Appropriate actions and follow-ups were planned to resolve the issues promptly and effectively.

Resolution Passed:

Resolution No. 1:

The SC/ST Committee resolved to warmly welcome the newly selected student representatives and congratulated them on their appointment. The committee expressed confidence in their ability to represent student concerns and contribute actively to the welfare and development of SC/ST students.

Resolution No. 2:

The committee resolved to review the list of incoming SC/ST students and monitor the status of their scholarship applications. Students with pending documents will be informed and guided to submit the required documents at the earliest.

Resolution No. 3:

The committee resolved to organize a comprehensive orientation program to inform students about available scholarships, mentoring support, and grievance procedures. The program will aim to enhance awareness and ensure students can access institutional support effectively.

Resolution No. 4:

The committee resolved to conduct a faculty survey to identify subjects where remedial coaching is most needed. Based on the survey results, appropriate remedial classes will be arranged to support students academically.

Resolution No. 5:

The SC/ST Cell resolved to address all existing student grievances and ensure proper documentation of each concern. The committee will take necessary actions and follow up to resolve the issues promptly.

The meeting concluded with vote of thanks to the Chair at 4:30 PM.
