Organizational Chart and processes

Nature and Extent of involvement of Faculty and students in academic affairs/improvements	A structured teaching plan aligned with the syllabus ensures timely coverage of topics. To enhance learning, assignments and unit-wise questionnaires are provided, offering students a deeper understanding and improving their academic performance. Regular student counseling, tutorials, and special classes are conducted. A systematic approach is followed for class tests and model exams. The department also organizes symposia, guest lectures, and association seminars. Additionally, industrial visits are arranged each semester to provide practical exposure and bridge the gap between theory and practice.
Mechanism/ Norms and Procedure for democratic/ good Governance	To promote good governance, the institution fosters a culture of participative decision-making. Faculty members and supporting staff are encouraged to provide suggestions and share their views in a democratic manner. Regular meetings are held at various levels, including: Management, Director, Dean IQAC, COE Heads of Departments, Faculty, Class Coordinators and Students This multi-tiered approach ensures effective communication, collaboration, and feedback, ultimately benefiting the students and the institution as a whole.
Student feedback mechanism on Institutional Governance/faculty Performance	Students provide feedback at the end of each semester, which is collected confidentially. The feedback is then shared with the respective faculty members, highlighting their strengths and areas for improvement to enhance their teaching effectiveness.
Grievance redressal mechanism for faculty ,staff and students	A grievance redressal committee is in place as per the AICTE notified regulation 2012, F.no.37-3/legal/2012 dated 25.05.2012.
